

AI RECEPTIONIST · 24/7 · BILINGUAL EN/ES

Never lose another job.

You shouldn't lose business because you were with a client, in a meeting, or asleep. The phone rings, we pick it up — qualify the call, book the job, and text you the details.

01 · THE PROBLEM

The math behind every missed call.

62%

of after-hours calls go unanswered

$275–$1,200

value of each call going to your competitor

5/week

missed calls × avg job = $1,375–$6,000/wk lost

02 · THIS HAPPENED TO YOU LAST WEEK

The calls you're already losing.

11:47 PM

Their AC just died. They're sweating. You're asleep. They call the next guy on Google.

2:14 PM

You're with a client. Three calls go to voicemail. Two never call back.

Peak season

50 calls a day. You answer 15. The other 35 went somewhere — and you'll never know where.

03 · WE GET IT

You didn't start a business to answer phones.

You started it to do great work — deliver quality service, build customer trust, grow your reputation. But the phone never stops. It rings when you're with a client. It rings during dinner. It rings at 11 PM on a Saturday.

Every call you can't answer is a job your competitor just booked.

24/7

Every call, every hour — including 2 AM emergencies

04 · HOW IT WORKS

Three steps to never miss another call.

Forward your phone

60 seconds. Works with any provider — Twilio, Google Voice, RingCentral, Verizon, AT&T.

We qualify the call

Emergency? New client? Follow-up? Sorted, scheduled, dispatched — 24/7, in English or Spanish.

You get the booking

In your calendar or CRM — plus SMS in 60 seconds. Emergencies escalated to your cell within 30 seconds.

05 · IMAGINE THIS

A month from now.

You finish the last job at 6 PM. You drive home. You eat dinner with your family. Your phone keeps ringing — and every single call gets answered. By Monday morning, your schedule is full. You didn't book a single one of those jobs yourself.

You sleep through the night.

Emergencies get triaged and routed. You only get woken up when it's a real high-value job.

Your calendar fills itself.

Every call ends as a booking — and you get the SMS in 60 seconds.

Revenue climbs without more trucks.

The jobs you used to miss are now on your schedule. One recovered emergency pays for 3 months.

You go back to liking your job.

You do the work you're great at. The phone works for you, not against you.
